

Monitoring of a natural gas supply network

Segment: Gas supply network
End user: Gasversorgung Unterland GMBH (GER)
System integrator: AVAT Automation GmbH
Realization date: 2007

Requirements:

- Changeover to the new system within a few hours the switchover to continuous running

Solution:

- Windows XP-based Client/Server System
- Two redundant servers in Hot-Standby mode
- Hierarchically structured and priority-controlled fault messaging system

Benefits:

- Intuitive and ergonomic user guiding with high performance levels
- Easy to use, safe and simple
- Clear menus and rapid picture change make operation easier

AVAT Automation is WinCC OA Solution Partner and one of the leading companies in the development and production of engine management systems for large gas engines. The main aims of this owner-operated company are the increase in efficiency in energy generation, the reduction of CO2 and toxic emissions, as well as the utilization of regenerative energy forms

